

1. Bulletin boards with glass covers are reserved for the activities labeled.
2. The religious bulletin board may be used by a church or para-church organization having member connections with Trailer Estates.
3. The travel bulletin boards are primarily for the use of residents of Trailer Estates who are sponsoring, leading or participating in a group.
4. The bulletin board on the north side of the Post Office entrance is reserved for items of general interest to residents and posting will be under the direction of a Trustee who will sign and date any item posted.
5. The bulletin board on the south side of the Post Office door will be available for any person desiring to express a concern of general interest to Trailer Estates residents. Postings on this board will be no larger than 8 ½" x 11". All postings will be in good taste. All postings must be signed and dated. No items derogatory to any individual may be posted. Nothing that might be construed as political shall appear. Postings on this board must be date stamped in the Trailer Estates Office and may remain on board no more that 15 days.
6. The bulletin board on the north side of the east wall in front of the Post Office will provide a space for 3 x 5 cards which will include areas for rentals, sales, and miscellaneous. Only 3 x 5 cards may be used and if tear offs are provided they must be a part of the 3 x 5 card. These spaces will be reserved for the use of residents only with a maximum of three (3) cards per resident.
7. No bulletin board will have commercial advertisements. The Trailer Estates Tribune provides a venue for commercial advertisers.
8. No bulletin board other than the one reserved for 3 x 5 cards will have advertising.
9. All bulletin boards will be cleared off on the last evening of the month or the first morning of the next month.
