MANATEE — One man remains in critical condition after he was shot while walking early Saturday morning, according to the Manatee County Sheriff's Office.

Two men walking on Dakota Street early Saturday were attacked just after midnight. A 56-year-old man was shot in the shoulder when the men told three attackers they had no money, the sheriff's office reported.

The attack happened in the 6600 block of Dakota Street and left one victim, a 23-year-old man, with a possible broken jaw, according to a report.

The shooting victim, whose name was not released, was rushed to Bayfront Medical Center and said to be in critical condition early Saturday.

Three attackers, said to be young men between the ages of 20 to 24 years old dressed in black, were tracked but not found, the Manatee County Sheriff's Office press release said.

Anyone with any information can contact the sheriff's office at 747-3011 or remain anonymous by calling Crimestoppers at (866) 634-TIPS (8477).
