

Excessive legal bills threaten Trailer Estates

WANTED: Someone to represent the taxpayers of Trailer Estates to sue attorneys who are causing this district of elderly people to possibly go into bankruptcy because of excessive legal bills. Necessary job requirements are that you cannot be an attorney. Also, you must find a courtroom where the judge was not a former attorney. With the advent of the Internet, a virtual courtroom in a foreign country should be a possibility. Also, you might want to consider getting legal advice from a country like China. We buy most of our products from there so legal advice should also be less expensive.
