RE: Inappropriate Behavior

Dear Martha:

I feel that your outburst in the card room, on Thursday evening, September 10, 2009, was totally inappropriate.

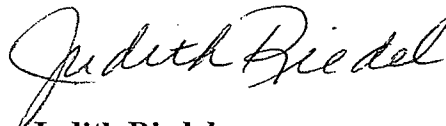

To subject seven women (almost old enough to be your mother) was very disrespectful. To tell them that John VanderMolen was smarter than all of us put together was downright rude.

To call Kay Hislop “old and forgetful” was very mean and nasty. To humiliate this “Grand Lady” in front of her friends and neighbors was totally uncalled for.

I feel that an apology made in public (as was the outburst) should be forthcoming on your part.

Personally, you have insulted my intelligence twice. Is this your way of putting people down and feeling in charge? Just for your information, my I.Q. is 143.
