

On Thursday evening 9-10-09 I went to play cards with 3 others in the card room.

Kay (Sealap) was playing domino's there with 2 ladies.

at 7:30 Kay received a phone call and she seemed very upset and we could hear a voice yelling at her. She hung up and tried to go down the Hall to find out what Martha was so upset about. From the video room Martha yelled "Don't you even try to come in here" and she had the door locked.

We went back to playing cards and Martha came to the door screaming and yelling at Kay -- she told Kay and Mary she wanted their keys. Kay said I don't have my keys with me - not even my house keys and Martha yelled, "so - you're old and forgetful" she continued to scream and yell very derogatory statements including "John has more brains than all 7 of you put together." This is not acceptable behavior from a trustee to treat senior in that manner I'm only sorry I didn't dial 911
