

BULLETS

January 4, 2011

- TE attorneys will proceed with motions filed with the court to obtain costs and attorneys fees from the Plaintiffs in the lawsuit. Residents will be notified as to when these hearings will occur.
- Coffee Break will be Jan. 15. There will be three speakers on health. Bike clubs will serve.
- All articles for the Tribune will now be due the first day of every month. Our new Tribune policy allows for a rebuttal if an article submitted is deemed unacceptable for publication as written. A new Media Committee has been established for this purpose.
- TE activities will be placed in alphabetical order on the white board on the east side of the Post Office.
- Watch for a scam that tells you to call an 888 number because you have been involved in a lawsuit. That concludes with a call to China, which you will be billed for.
- Showtime is Jan. 13 at 7 p.m. in the Large Hall. Sweet Adelines will perform.
- There will be a Bocce Breakfast Jan. 22, 8-10 a.m. in the Large Hall.
- The Board is considering what to do with the boat hoist.
- The Board will vote on making Jane's position in the office permanent part time.
- Two contracts for trash removal beginning Feb. 1 were considered by the Board. It is possible TE will go to a once-a-week pickup. Discuss your feelings about this with the trustees so they can vote on your behalf Jan. 17.
- The tire problem on 14th Street at Florida Blvd. has not been resolved. Please make a wide turn when turning right onto Florida Blvd. from 14th Street.
- Please park vehicles on one side of the street only so emergency vehicles can easily get by and do their job for all of us.
