Letters: 3/6

No end in sight to drama at Trailer Estates Park

After many years of waiting, the Trailer Estates Park and Recreation District won their Sunshine Law and Public Records lawsuit. However, it is not enough that they won, now they want to punish the two sisters for bringing the lawsuit and filing an appeal.

They have some strange tactics. They have decided that the Sunsetters Club, which has met at the Beach Pavilion for over two years and have their Articles of Organization, By-Laws and Rules of Conduct on file and sanctioned by the Trailer Estates Park and Recreation District (hereinafter, the district), can no longer have their reservation because the Bocci Club, which has not filed Articles of Organization, By-Laws or Rules of Conduct, called and complained to a trustee and said that the Sunsetters Club came into the pavilion before the Bocci Club was finished with it. Now they, our Board of Directors, are saying they need to pull the cards of people so they cannot use the facilities for 180 days. There is to be a public hearing on March 7 to discuss the Sunsetters punishment without proof of guilt.

The Let's Talk Club, which was formed by the sisters so people could come together and discuss things in a forum, is now being attended by those who want them out of the park, and have attended a meeting where they laughed and were disruptive. Next thing you know, they will show up at the Yacht Club meeting and try to make waves there.

At a time when we need to heal this park, things seem to have gotten worse.

If the judge could only see what actually goes on here.
